

Photography Now by Charlotte Jansen

In the 21st century, what can photography do that is new? This book presents fifty artists from around the world who are defining photography today.

A History of Photography by Steven Heller

A chronological collection of notable images collected by the founder of Kodak.

The Polaroid Book by Crist

This collection curates over 250 works by luminaries and unknowns alike, celebrating the boundless possibilities that develop inside the white borders of the original instant photograph.

The Photography Ideas Book by Lorna Yabsley

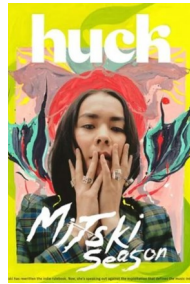

This little book is full of big ideas — discover fresh ways of tackling your subjects to create original and exciting new work.

The Artist's Manual by DK

Covering everything from how to draw to ceramics, you'll get the most out of your passion for art with this handbook.

MAGAZINES

A good selection of photography magazines are available to read online via Hertfordshire Public Libraries, for free.

Including:
Lens—A magazine celebrating contemporary fine art photography

Huck—Packed with smart journalism and stunning photography

Vogue—Glossy high-fashion and celebrity photography.

Digital and Amateur Photographer — these titles cover technical and artistic topics around photography, with ideas and tips for your own work.

Camera manuals and guides — Hertfordshire Public Libraries also have many, many guides to photography techniques and specific camera skills.

Photography WIDER READING

All these books are available from the school library

Photography: The Definitive History by Tom Ang

Traces the history of photography from the first black and white images to celebrated examples of 21st-century digital photography, including the most iconic photographs of the past 200 years and more than 50 biographies.

Ways of Seeing by John Berger

A unique look at the way we view art—considered to be one of the most stimulating and influential books on art in any language.

What They Didn't Teach You in Photo School by D. Fordham

Outpace the competition and put your photography skills to work with this enlightening, hard-working, no-nonsense guide to professional shooting in the real world.

On Photography by Susan Sontag

In these six incisive essays, Sontag examines the ways in which we use images to manufacture a sense of reality and authority in our lives.

30-Second Photography by B. Dilg

Understand the 50 most thought-provoking concepts, techniques and technologies that have shaped photography into the ever-present art form it is today.

Why It Does Not Have to Be in Focus by Jackie Higgins

Why take a self-portrait but obscure your face with a lightbulb? Or deliberately underexpose an image?

Isms: Understanding Photography by Emma Lewis

A handy, attractive guide tracing the evolution of photography through a series of interconnected trends, groups, themes and movements.

50 Photographers You Should Know by P. Stepan

From Felix Nadar to Nan Goldin, each of the photographers featured here represents an important aspect of photography's evolution.

Magnum Stories

This book explores the 'photo story' through 61 master classes by some of the world's greatest photographers.

Monographs by and about various professional photographers are available to borrow from Hertfordshire Public Libraries.

Understanding a Photograph by John Berger

John Berger's writings on photography are some of the most original of the twentieth century. This selection contains many ground-breaking essays and previously uncollected pieces.

Photographers A-Z by H. Koetzle

This biographical encyclopaedia features every major photographer of the 20th century alongside her or his most significant monographs.

Photography: history, art, technique by Tom Ang

This all-in-one guide introduces you to the art, history, and culture of photography, and shows you how to get the very best from your photographs.

Art Essentials: Photography by David Bate

Legendary photographs are discussed alongside photobooks and exhibitions that marked a shift in outlook, values & approach.

The Photography Book by Ian Jeffrey

Over 550 superb images that represent the world's best photographers.