

Kings Langley School

Unlocking Potential for Life

What training is available to staff who are supporting the students with SEND?

- All staff have completed Child Protection Training.
- Kings Langley School has an ongoing programme of Continuing Professional Development both in and out of school.
- All staff have access to the SENCo and Learning Support department who can give advice, run training sessions on specific needs or update specific groups of staff with regards to a student.
- Members of the Learning Support department attend training with regards to Autism, Speech and Language, Mental Health, ADHD, Literacy and Numeracy.
- The school is committed to bringing in external professionals to deliver high quality training for SEND. The school is working with David Bartram OBE who is an independent SEND consultant to improve our outcomes for our SEND students.
